

Dear President Trump:

I am writing on behalf of Philip Zodhiates, of Waynesboro, Virginia, who was unjustly convicted and sentenced in Federal Court in the Western District of NY in a blatant political prosecution by the Obama Department of Justice, and supported by LAMBDA Legal Defense and the A.C.L.U.

This is an opportunity for you to set a grave wrong right, one begun by the Obama regime in an attempt to impose their evil agenda against the rest of us. Mr. Zodhiates was merely trying to help a mother protect her child from being abused. Meanwhile, the courts were focused on advancing their "gay" marriage agenda. This is an outrage!

Please right this wrong by instructing the Department of Justice to dismiss this case against a good man.

Dear Vice President Pence:

I am writing you as one of President Trump's closest advisors, on behalf of Philip Zodhiates, of Waynesboro, Virginia, who was unjustly convicted and sentenced in Federal Court in the Western District of NY in a blatant political prosecution by the Obama Department of Justice, and supported by LAMBDA Legal Defense and the A.C.L.U.

This is an opportunity for the Trump Administration to set a grave wrong right, one instigated by the Obama regime in an attempt to impose their evil agenda against the rest of us. Mr. Zodhiates was merely trying to help a mother protect her child from being abused. Meanwhile the courts were focused on advancing their "gay" marriage agenda. This is an outrage!

Please ask President Trump to right this wrong by instructing the Department of Justice to dismiss this case against this good man.
